Title 1: Administrative Procedure

Chapter 3: Procedural Rules

§ 307. Required rulemaking

Cite as: 1 CNCA § 307

In addition to other rulemaking requirements imposed by law, each agency shall:

1. within ninety (90) days of the enactment of this act, adopt as a rule a description of the organization of the agency which states the general course and method of its operations and where and how the public may obtain information or make submissions or requests;
2. within ninety (90) days of the enactment of this act, adopt rules of practice setting forth the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures available to the public, including a description of all forms and instructions that are to be used by the public in dealing with the agency;
3. as soon as feasible and to the extent practicable, adopt rules, in addition to those otherwise required by this act, embodying appropriate standards, principles, and procedural safeguards that the agency will apply to the law it administers; and
4. as soon as feasible and to the extent practicable, adopt rules to supersede principles of law or policy lawfully declared by the agency as the basis for its decisions in particular cases.
