

Cherokee Nation Code Annotated

Title 10: Children

Chapter 51: Delinquent, Dependent and Neglected Children

Article I: Dependent and Delinquent Children

§ 1140. Children becoming unmanageable and uncontrollable

Cite as: 10 CNCA § 1140

If a child who has been adjudicated as a delinquent, a child in need of supervision, or deprived, and who has been committed to Cherokee Nation becomes unmanageable and uncontrollable while in the legal custody of Cherokee Nation, Cherokee Nation may return the child to the Court having original jurisdiction for further disposition or may provide information to the Prosecuting Attorney and request the filing of a petition alleging the child to be delinquent or in need of treatment, if such petition is warranted by the facts in the case.