Title 18: Corporations

Chapter 2: Cherokee Nation Limited Liability Company Act

Article 2: Organization

§ 213. Articles of organization—Filing

Cite as: 18 CNCA § 213

A. One or more persons may form a limited liability company upon the filing of executed articles of organization with the Office of the Principal Chief.

B. When the Office of the Principal Chief files the articles of organization, the proposed organization becomes a limited liability company under the name and subject to the purposes, conditions, and provisions stated in the articles.

C. Filing of the articles by the Office of the Principal Chief is conclusive evidence of the formation of the limited liability company.
