Title 20: Courts

Appendix I. Supreme Court Rules and Procedures

VI. Motions

Rule 47. Intervention

Cite as: 20 CNCA app. I, r. 47

Any person desiring to intervene in any proceeding shall file a motion in writing or, if made at the hearing, may move orally on the record, stating the grounds upon which such person claims an interest. An unstapled original of written motions shall be filed. Immediately upon filing such motion, the moving party shall serve a copy thereof on the other parties. The Court shall rule upon all such motions filed and shall cause a copy of said rulings to be served on the other parties. The Court may by order permit intervention in person or by counsel or other representative to such extent and upon such terms as deemed proper.
