Title 21: Crimes and Punishments

Part 1. In General

Chapter 2: General Provisions

§ 27. Mitigation of punishment

Cite as: 21 CNCA § 27

Where it is made to appear at the time of passing sentence upon a person convicted, that such person has already paid a fine or suffered an imprisonment for the act which he stands convicted, under an order adjudging it a contempt, the Court authorized to pass sentence may mitigate the punishment to be imposed, in its discretion.
