

Cherokee Nation Code Annotated

Title 21: Crimes and Punishments

Part 1. In General

Chapter 2: General Provisions

§ 65. Civil rights suspended

Cite as: 21 CNCA § 65

A sentence of imprisonment suspends all the civil rights of the person so sentenced, except the right to make employment contracts, during confinement under said sentence, subject to the approval of the Nation's Court, when this benefits the vocational training or release preparation of the prisoner, and forfeits all public offices.
