

Cherokee Nation Code Annotated

Title 21: Crimes and Punishments

Part 1. In General

Chapter 6: Crimes Against the Executive Power

§ 270. Reward for omission to act, asking or receiving

Cite as: 21 CNCA § 270

Every executive officer who asks or receives any emolument, gratuity or reward, or any promise of any emolument, gratuity or reward, for omitting or deferring the performance of any official duty, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Historical Data

LA 10–90, eff. November 13, 1990. Amended LA 28-20, eff. December 14, 2020.