

Cherokee Nation Code Annotated
Title 21: Crimes and Punishments
Part VI. Crimes Against Public Peace
Chapter 55: Other Crimes Against Public Peace
§ 1319. Combination to resist process

Cite as: 21 CNCA § 1319

Every person who resists, or enters into a combination with any other person to resist the execution of any legal process, under circumstances not amounting to a riot, is punishable by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one (1) year, or by a fine not exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or both.

Historical Data

LA 07-21, eff. February 22, 2021.