Title 21: Crimes and Punishments
Part VII. Crimes Against Property
Chapter 63: Forgery or Counterfeiting
§ 1593. Falsely obtaining signature

Cite as: 21 CNCA § 1593

Every person who, by any false representation, artifice or deceit, procures from another his signature to any instrument, the false making of which would be forgery, and which the party signing would not have executed had he known the facts and effect of the instrument, is guilty of forgery in the second degree.
