Title 22: Criminal Procedure

Chapter 25: Miscellaneous Provisions

§ 1272. Affidavits or depositions need not be entitled

Cite as: 22 CNCA § 1272

It is not necessary to entitle an affidavit, or deposition in the action, whether taken before or after indictment; but if made without a title, or with an erroneous title, it is as valid and effectual for every purpose as if it were duly entitled, if it intelligibly refer to the proceedings, in which it is made.
