Title 22: Criminal Procedure

Chapter 26: RICO

§ 1406. Authority of court after indictment or information and hearing

Cite as: 22 CNCA § 1406

After the filing of an indictment or information by the Attorney General and after a hearing with respect to which any person who shall be affected has been given thirty (30) days' notice and opportunity to participate, the court may, based on the indictment or information and the hearing:

1. Enter a restraining order or injunction;
2. Require the execution of satisfactory bond in the amount of ten percent (10%) of the property value; or
3. Take any other action, including the appointment of a receiver, that the Attorney General shows by a preponderance of the evidence is necessary to preserve the property which may be subject to criminal forfeiture.
