

Cherokee Nation Code Annotated

Title 22: Criminal Procedure

Chapter 26: RICO

§ 1407. Court authority after judgment--Authorization to seize property declared forfeited

Cite as: 22 CNCA § 1407

Following the entry of a judgment that includes a fine or an order of criminal forfeiture pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee Nation Racketeer-Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act, or both, the court may enter a restraining order or an injunction, require the execution of a satisfactory bond, or take any other action, including the appointment of a receiver, that the court deems proper to protect the interests of the Nation.

An order of criminal forfeiture shall authorize the Attorney General to seize the property declared forfeited upon such terms and conditions, relating to the time and manner of seizure, as the court shall deem proper.
