Title 26: Elections

Chapter 2: Supervisory Bodies and Election Commission Office

§ 15. Record Retention

Cite as: 26 CNCA § 15

The Election Commission Office, at the direction of the Election Commission, shall develop Policies and Procedures with respect to record retention. Said policies shall:

A. Permit the destruction of paper records relating to the conduct of an election not less than one (1) year after the disposition of a final appeal arising out of any election held under this Title, including but not limited to ballots, provided that original election certification records shall be maintained permanently in perpetuity.

B. Require said destruction of paper records to occur only after public notice of said destruction is given by the Election Commission at a Regular or Special Election Commission meeting.
