

Cherokee Nation Code Annotated

Title 40: Labor and Employment

Chapter 3: Preference in Employment

§ 310. Duties of contractors and subcontractors—Liability of employers for violations by contractors and subcontractors

Cite as: 40 CNCA § 310

The Indian preference requirements contained in this Title shall be binding on all contractors and subcontractors doing projects for employers (unless applicable federal or state law prevents such a preference), regardless of tier, as referenced in 40 CNCA § 301(A) (2), and shall be deemed a part of all contract and subcontract specifications. Any violation of this Act by a contractor or subcontractor of an employer shall subject the contractor or subcontractor to penalties even if the contract does not contain the Indian preference requirement, unless applicable federal or state law prevents such a preference.
