Title 64: Public Lands

Chapter 1: Lands Acquired From the United States

§ 1. Abandoned military and agency reservations

Cite as: 64 CNCA § 1

Every military and agency reservation, which is, or may be hereafter occupied by the United States, within the limits of this nation, and whenever the United States shall cease to occupy the same, shall revert to the Nation; and it will not be lawful for any citizen to take possession of any such reservation, except by the permission of the national authorities under the penalty of being removed therefrom.
