

Cherokee Nation Code Annotated
Title 85: Workers' Compensation
Chapter 1: General Provisions
§ 9. False statement or representation
Cite as: 85 CNCA § 9

If, in order to obtain any compensation under the provisions of this Title, any claimant knowingly makes a false statement or representation, including any material omission, such claimant shall forfeit all rights to such compensation and will be liable for restitution upon proof that the offense was committed, and may be referred to the appropriate law enforcement agency. A violation under this section shall be a crime. Further, any such claimant may be immediately dismissed from employment without progressive discipline.
